DUO is visiting Sint Maarten!

Information session for students that want to study in the Netherlands

Do you intend to study in the Netherlands during the upcoming academic year? Then register for the 'Studying in the Netherlands' information session on Monday 25 November at 7 p.m. on Sint Maarten.

Contents of information session

During the session, you will learn about what study financing entails, how and when you must request study financing, and what else you must arrange. Naturally, you will also have the opportunity to ask questions. The session will be in English.

Visit a temporary service desk

If you still have questions afterwards or need help filling in forms, pop into the temporary service desk on Sint Maarten between 25 and 29 November. There is no need for you to make an appointment. However, you must bring valid proof of identification with you.
